VOCATIONAL SERVICES INFORMATIONAL MEETING

Who Should Attend? Anyone who receives (or may be interested in) vocational services.

What is this about? Pathways and our community partners, invite you to come learn about exciting changes in vocational services. We are making these changes due to the federal Home and Community Based Standards rule. This rule is important because it will ensure that individuals who use Home and Community Based services:

1. Are integrated in and can fully participate in their communities as they wish.
2. Receive quality supports – what they want and need.
3. Have their Rights protected.

How do I learn more? Pathways has scheduled the following information-sharing meetings where we will go over the new Home and Community Based Service Standards and the impact on Vocational Services. Please plan on attending one of the trainings scheduled.
